SHORT FORM SELECTION

RADIO-ENERGIE Tachogenerators

Radio-Energie, Europe's leading manufacturer of Tachogenerators, was founded in 1928 to produce electric generators and converters to supply power to radio telephonic and radio telegraphic receivers and transmitters; hence its name.

TACHOGENERATORS

In 1949 Radio-Energie started to produce Tachogenerators for industry and have produced a wide range of high quality and reliable units ever since. The REO444R quickly established itself as the 'Industry Standard' and with its many options it quickly became the engineer's choice.

Our technical help desk is always available to discuss your applications and in particular help you identify your Tacho that requires replacement.

We offer replacements for many other brands including Hubner, Baumuller, BALDOR, Debu, Magnetic, Rotex, GE and Thalheim.

If you are looking for a replacement Tacho it is helpful to include the Model & Serial number in any correspondence.
